RESULTS AND DISCUSSION:

The results section of the research paper is where you report the findings of your study based upon the information gathered as a result of the methodology [or methodologies] you applied. The results section should simply state the findings, without bias or interpretation, and arranged in a logical sequence

The purpose of the discussion is to interpret and describe the significance of your findings in light of what was already known about the research problem being investigated, and to explain any new understanding or fresh insights about the problem after you've taken the findings into consideration.

CONCLUSION:

Although a conclusion may review the main points of the paper, do not replicate the abstract as the conclusion. A conclusion might elaborate on the importance of the work or suggest applications and extensions.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT: (If Need)

Use the singular heading even if you have many acknowledgments. Avoid expressions such as "One of us (S.B.A.) would like to thank" Instead, write "C.A. Author thanks" Sponsor and financial support acknowledgments are included in the acknowledgement section. For example: This work was supported in part by the AB Department of Science under Grant AZ 123456 (sponsor and financial support acknowledgment goes here). Researchers that contributed information or assistance to the article should also be acknowledged in this section.

For example

Acknowledgement

The authors wish to thank A, B, C. This work was supported in part by a grant from XYZ.

REFERENCES: Please put reference as a numerical method with square bracket.
